

Hope from the Deep: Saving the Ocean Floor

Dr. David Gallo

Oceanographer, Director of Special Projects,
Woods Hole Oceanographic Institution

Friday, July 23, 2010 7:00 pm / Reception at 6:00 pm
MERI Center for Marine Studies, Blue Hill, Maine

'The Deepwater Horizon catastrophe is one example of why we need to explore the bottom of the sea.' Join us for a lecture by renowned oceanographer David Gallo, who is unveiling the mysteries of the deep ocean with unprecedented accuracy and clarity. One of the first to use a combination of submarines and robots to map the undersea world, he will share his perspective on the Gulf and his hopes for preserving vital underwater ecosystems.

Sponsored by the Wood Point Road Neighborhood Association, with generous support from the Maine Community Foundation and Maine Coastal Program
